ODYSSEY REGISTRATION & CHECK-IN

Odyssey registration will be held in the Lobby area near the elevators to our rooms. Registration times are: Thursday, Sept. 14th from 3:00-6:00 P.M., Friday, Sept. 15th from 7:15-7:45 A.M., and Saturday, Sept. 16th from 7:30 – 7:45 A.M.

WEAVING ROOM HOURS

Classes are held in the Nimitz/Bradley ballroom. See schedule for class times. The room will be locked from shortly after 5:00PM on Friday to allow instructors time for their dinners. It will reopen at 6:30PM to set up for Marketplace. The doors will open for Marketplace at 7:30PM.

The weaving room and adjoining Patton/MacArthur room will be open until 10:30 Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights. Do not use the instructor's weaving area after class is over, unless the instructor is present. Instructors are not expected to stay that late—please do not ask them to--they need their down time! However, if you would like to weave, we have the dining table spaces available to weave or just for hanging out! We also have tables in the Hospitality room that you can use for visiting/weaving after class hours.

BASKET EXCHANGE

PLEASE consider participating in our basket exchange this year! It will be held Saturday during lunch. You may participate whether you are a beginner, intermediate, or advanced weaver. Whatever your level of expertise, the basket you make to give in the exchange should be a basket you would be happy to receive in the exchange. Please bring your basket to the specified table in the Nimitz/Bradley Room, and fill out the proper tags.

MARKET PLACE

Market place will be held Friday, Sept. 15th from 7:30 – 8:30 P.M. in the Nimitz/Bradley Room. Teachers and participants are encouraged to sell items. Don't forget to check the spot on the registration form if you wish to reserve a table. (Room is closed from shortly after 5:00PM to 6:30PM to allow teachers time to get their dinners; set up can begin at 6:30 PM).

RAFFLE & AUCTION

Proceeds of the Odyssey Raffle and Silent Auction are used to fund Odyssey expenses, and keep your registration fee low! Thanks for supporting this endeavor every year. Tickets will be sold Friday and Saturday until the dinner and you must be a registered member of the Odyssey to purchase tickets. The raffle items will be awarded during the banquet. A silent auction of donations by the Instructors will also be held! Bid early and bid high!

MASSEUSE

We are pleased to have local masseuse Shirley Fenimore back again. She will be offering massages through Odyssey weekend. Please sign up for a time slot at your earliest convenience! Please bring cash, $1 per minute. Remember if you sign up that you are committed to that time slot--be prompt!

SCHOLARSHIP

Central Pennsylvania Basket Weavers' Guild will be awarding a scholarship of a full registration fee ($80) in memory of Carol MacNeil. Carol was a former CPBWG member who served in many capacities – Guild President, Board Member, Odyssey Committee Member, and Dye Party Hostess. Carol passed away December 22, 2006. The award will be presented during Saturday dinner.

SATURDAY DINNER

Saturday dinner will begin at 6:00PM and is included in your registration cost. Dinner will be held in the hotel's banquet dining room – Patton/MacArthur Room. The Raffle and Silent Auction winners will be announced after dinner.

2017 WEAVING ODYSSEY INSTRUCTORS

PEGGY ADELMAN

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

Adelman.peggy@gmail.com

My basket career started 17 years ago when we first moved to North Carolina. I took a basket making class at Guilford Technical Community College (GTCC), then I joined the North Carolina Basket Makers Association and took basket classes from many different teachers. In 2009 I became the basket making instructor at GTCC. After taking a paper marbling class at John C. Campbell Folk Art School, I began designing marbled and hand painted paper baskets. Several years ago I began to teach my original designs at national basketry conventions. I currently live in Greensboro, North Carolina with my husband and four dogs. My web site is Bluemoonbaskets.com

JAN BEYMA

WILMINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

beyma@bellsouth.net

I have been teaching and weaving baskets for over twenty years. I have taught at North Carolina Basketry Association and Georgia conventions, seminars and for our local Port City Guild. I enjoy weaving Nantucket baskets. I love to stimulate the interest of basket weaving and sharing weaving tips with others that I have learned over the years. I also learn new tips from my students! I consider myself a non-traditional Nantucket basket weaver as I find common things to use as molds for my classes. I usually incorporate a twill weave into my baskets.

CHAR CIAMMAICHELLA

AURORA, OHIO

charweave@gmail.com

Char has been weaving for over 20 years and teaching for the last twelve years. She weaves mainly with reed and loves playing with color placement to get many different and interesting patterns. She teaches at home, at guild gatherings, and at many weaving conventions. She loves teaching and passing down the weaving techniques to all. She has opened her website www.charsweavings.com for purchasing basket kits and basket related jewelry. Char is constantly trying new techniques, colors and ideas. Char has been the coordinator for WinterWeave Conference the last 23 years.

PATI ENGLISH

SENECA, SOUTH CAROLINA

BasketsMySpecialty@yahoo.com

Teaching in her studio, at museums, guilds and conventions, Pati enjoys sharing her love of baskets with weavers of all ages. The view out of her studio windows of the Blue Ridge Mountains is inspiration for color combinations in her original designs. She hand dyes all materials for her baskets, kits and classes. Her patterns are available nationally and on her website, www.BasketsMySpecialty.com. S.C. Art Commission Resident and former Teacher/Librarian, Pati dreamed of writing a book. Now in print, Award-Winning Basket Designs: Techniques and Patterns for All Levels, features 349 color photographs, award winning patterns, and more. This artist intends to continue weaving and teaching so the next generation will be able to carry on this tradition and keep the art of basketry alive.

PAM FEIX

EATON, OHIO

pfeix@woh.rr.com

Basketry is a wonderful art. Pam enjoys it as a way to relax, to create, and to just have fun. She loves to create new designs and share them with others. She also likes to attend conventions and retreats where she can make new friends while renewing old friendships. She likes to make many different styles of baskets, by typically designs reed baskets with wood bases. She has taught at many conventions, retreats and guilds. She has taught in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Texas, Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Michigan, Georgia, Arkansas as well as on the Basket Weavers' Cruise. Pam is the co-founder and co-coordinator of the Stateline Friends Weaving Retreat. She is also the current coordinator of the Dayton Heritage Basketry Guild's Fall Weave. Basketry is definitely one of her main obsessions!

DIANNE GLEIXNER

diannegleixner@sbcglobal.net

Dianne began weaving baskets in 1987 and teaching in 2004. She enjoys weaving Nantucket style baskets, twills, and anything else with a challenge. She has written and published over 60 patterns. Dianne has taught in many states for their local guilds or state conventions. She is honored that her baskets have won numerous awards at basket weaving conventions around the country. Dianne's website is www.diannegleixnerbaskets.com

GINA KIEFT

ROTHBURY, MICHIGAN

She has won several awards in exhibit rooms at conventions. She teaches her love of basket weaving throughout the United States, as well as from her home studio. Trying new mediums and new techniques is something Gina enjoys; however twill is her favorite. Gina's newest venture is owner of DyedReed.com!

BILLY OWENS

JENKINS, MISSOURI

billy.owens@ymail.com

Billy Owens is the second generation of the "Owens' White Oak" basket makers. His dad, Dale Owens, was self-taught and the first basket maker in the family. Billy's wife, Theresa, his children, and grandchildren (third and fourth generation), help with the weaving. "Owens' Oak Baskets" has been around for over 30 years in the Ozarks of Southwestern Missouri. All the material used in the baskets is made from White Oak timber grown here in the Ozarks, which Billy selects, cuts and prepares by hand, using a hand tool called a "Split Knife", which was handmade by his Dad, Dale. Billy enjoys sharing with his students everything about the Ozark and Owens method of "White Oak" basketry, from selecting the right tree to how he prepares the material for weaving. Billy's goal when he teaches is that all students leave with a finished basket that will last a lifetime, as well as have fun learning about White Oak basket making. Billy wants to ensure the Tradition of Ozark White Oak basketry lives on.
